

Mitchell man, 33, dies in fire

Michael L. Farrell, 33, of 545 Fleming Place, Mitchell, lost his life as fire swept through his home at 6:45 p.m. Friday. He was pronounced dead at the scene by Madison County Deputy Coroner William Sternberg at 7:25 p.m. Friday of apparent smoke inhalation.

Neighbors noticed the fire and called the Mitchell Volunteer Fire Department. Mr. Farrell could be heard screaming in the living room, so the neighbors attempted to open the front door, but furniture or something in front of the door prohibited it from being opened more than a crack, investigators were told.

Mr. Farrell then apparently attempted to go through the kitchen to the back door, but was overcome by the smoke and fell on his side on the kitchen floor, where his body was found.

The fire raged through a storage shed and the garage, destroying an auto in the garage, and flames reached the kitchen before firemen were able to halt it.

There were some burns apparent on

Mr. Farrell's arms, shoulders, face and chest, but Mitchell Fire Chief Lee Paul said he believes the burns were the result of intense heat, and not direct contact with flames. His clothing did not burn.

"The fire did not get into that part of the kitchen, but the smoke was terrible, in there," Paul told the Press-Record.

Damage was estimated at $30,000 to the house and $18,000 to its contents, including the automobile, Paul estimated.

State Arson Investigator Bill Buxton and a representative of the state fire marshal's office arrived later Friday night and their investigation concluded Saturday. They found that two main wires leading into the main fuse box in the storage shed had short-circuited, causing sparks and probably setting off the fire.

There were no signs of foul play, they concluded.

Additional details of Mr. Farrell's life and funeral arrangements may be found in today's obituary column.

GC to debate new $14 million budget

By GARY SCHNEIDER
of the Press-Record

Lengthy debate on the tentative 1980-81 fiscal year budgets for Granite City is anticipated at tomorrow evening's public hearing and special meeting of the city council, due to begin at 7 p.m. in the council chambers at the city hall.

City Treasurer Nick Petrillo is asking the aldermen to consider scrapping the tentative $14,359,216 budget and returning to the 1979-80 fiscal year budget of $10,204,195, plus $2.5 million for the 19th Street overpass.

"If we spend what we did last year, we will get by, we know that. If the assessment increases and we get more money, well, that's, that's," Petrillo told the Press-Record.

He informed the council at its last meeting that he does not have enough money to pay all of the city's bills and urged them to avoid a similar cash-flow crisis for the next fiscal year.

Mayor Paul Schuler has said he feels the increase in the tentative city budget will be supported by the increase in the 1980 assessed valuation of the city, due to construction of several major new industries and major expansions of other industrial facilities.

He also said the current cash-flow problems are only the result of the county collecting taxes late this year, due to a mass of assessment protests which had to be resolved by the county's Board of Review.

Eight of the city's aldermen apparently agreed at last week's meeting as they voted 8 to 5 to put the budgets prepared by the mayor's office on first reading. Final passage is expected following tomorrow night's public hearing.

Another budget package the aldermen have been studying is one prepared by two members of the three-member finance committee. That budget package calls for sweeping cuts of personnel in most city departments and for eliminating the city's air pollution control department.

The authors of that budget package, Alderman Paul Ray Bowler, chairman of the finance committee, and Alderman Warren Decatur, a committee member, have warned repeatedly that they feel personnel cuts will be necessary before the end of the 1980-81 fiscal year and said fewer persons will have to be laid off later in the fiscal year if the recommended reductions are undertaken now.

It seems apparent, at this moment, that the mayor's proposed budget package has the most support, but several of the aldermen who voted to put it on first reading also expressed doubts whether the city will be able to support so large a budget.

Dave Nolan, administrative aide to Mayor Schuler, says the $14 million figure for the budgets is deceiving, for several reasons, the major one being the overpass.

While the city has budgeted $2,500,000 for the local share of the overpass' construction, none of it will come from real estate taxation. Granite City Steel has donated $1.7 million to the city for the overpass and the remainder of the city's share is being financed by bonds which the council has pledged to repay from motor fuel tax revenues.

Removing the $2,500,000 for the overpass from the $14,359,216 budget leaves $11,759,216, which is only 15 percent above the 1979-80 fiscal year budget of $10,204,195.

Part of that increase is due to unspent revenue sharing funds from the previous fiscal year which have been "carried over" and reappropriated in the 1980-81 fiscal year budget. Revenue sharing accounts for $767,438 of the new budget package, Nolan explained.

Perhaps tomorrow night's meeting will show whether a majority of the aldermen believe Mayor Schuler's statement that Granite City "is in a period of unprecedented growth" that will support the new budget, or whether

Tax rates drop in three area townships

By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record

Newly announced tax rates for this summer's property tax collections are generally good news for residents of Nameoki, Chouteau and Granite City townships and less happy news for the Venice Township area.

Compilations show the overall Venice rate for each $100 assessed valuation rising from $6.85 a year ago to $6.96, and the combined Madison rate increasing from $6.414 to $7.18. The Venice Township (Venice-Madison) assessed valuation has dropped from $41,079,709 to $25,196,519, including the elimination of corporate personal property, on which taxes have been replaced by proceeds from a higher corporate state income tax.

Aided by a 42.1 percent reduction in the Granite City School District Nine rate, the overall tax rate paid by most Granite Cityans is decreasing from $6.845 to $6.555.

With the School District Nine rate reduction and a $1.19 cut in the Special Service Area One sewer tax rate, Nameoki Township property owners' combined rate is plummeting from $7.856 to $6.121 and the Chouteau Township overall rate is falling from $7.963 to $6.30.

Not counting the sewers, and not counting any municipal property tax, a levy which Pontoon Beach officials intentionally avoid, the combined rate in the village area is decreasing from $5.934 to $5.598.

Including the Service Area One sewer tax, the combined Pontoon Beach rate is declining from $7.958 to $6.423—a $1.535 decrease exceeded only by the Nameoki Township reduction of $1.735 and the Chouteau Township overall rate cut of $1.553.

As noted, the biggest downward changes in Quad-City area tax rates are the Granite City School District Nine reduction of 42.1 cents, from $3.78 to $2.39 per $100 valuation, and the Madison County sanitary sewer service rate decrease of $1.190, from the first year's $2.024 (when more than a year's bond principal and interest had to be met) to 88 cents for the more normal second year, the 1979 tax year (summer 1980 collection).

For the compilations in this article, last year's Belleville Area College rate of 19.5 cents is being repeated; tax officials have been delayed in determining the new BAC rate because of a wait for assessment figures from the Belleville Area southern portion of the college district.

The Madison County governmental rate is rising from 55.8 cents a year ago to 63.4 cents.

The Metro-East Sanitary District, which includes most of the Quad-Cities and a portion of St. Clair County, has a new tax rate of 33.3 cents, up slightly from 33.9 a year ago.

The Madison and Venice areas have experienced rate boosts for both school and city operating costs.

The Madison School District rate for this summer's collection is $3.33, compared to $2.984 a year ago, and the Venice School District rate is $3.852, compared to $3.553.

Venice's municipal levy has led to a new rate of $2.218 ($1.51 a year ago). The City of Madison has a new rate of $2.144 ($2.057), and the City of Granite City is increasing to $1.517 ($1.477 a year ago).

Among park districts, there is a rate increase for Granite City, 26.6 cents (24.6) and a rate decrease for Venice, 27 cents (30.42).

Chouteau Township has a rate decrease, with a road and bridge fund rate hike of 0.8 cent, 39.6 cents compared to 38.8 a year ago, offset by a town fund rate decline of 2.4 cents, 25.1 cents now compared to 27.5.

The Granite City Township rate is climbing from 3.5 to 4.4 cents.

In Venice Township, the town fund rate is rising from 38.8 cents to 41.2 cents and the road and bridge rate is increasing from 1.9 to 2.5 cents.

In Nameoki Township, the town fund rate is advancing from 38.9 to 39.3 cents and the road and bridge rate is increasing from 37.1 to 37.5 cents.

Youth stabbed, assailant held

Kevin Woodruff, 19, of the 2400 block of E. 23rd St., is recuperating in St. Elizabeth Medical Center after he was stabbed nine times during a fight outside Sambo's Restaurant, 3995 Nameoki Road.

Granite City police are holding a 19-year-old Sheridan Avenue man in connection with the stabbing and plan to apply today to the Madison County state's attorney's office for felony warrants. His name is being withheld, pending the filing of official charges.

According to the victim and witnesses, the two young men had a disagreement inside the restaurant and went outside to fight. Police were called and as Patrolman Doug Law approached, he saw the two fighting with another person attempting to separate them, he reported.

When they saw the police car, the two separated and one youth moved his hand as though throwing something away. A click on the rocks nearby was heard moments later.

Woodruff was holding his abdomen in pain and there was an extensive amount of blood on his clothing. Law reported. He also alleged that the other youth was the one who cut him.

The other youth, who had only minor wounds, was handcuffed and arrested. Officers then checked the rocks where Law had heard the click and found a folding knife with blood on it, according to official reports. The knife had a 2 1/2-inch blade, officers said.

The youth who is being held was questioned and alleged he had been stabbed twice in the hand with a fork inside the restaurant before he asked Woodruff to fight. He suffered four puncture wounds to the back of his right hand and minor cuts to his little finger and right forearm, but declined to be taken to the medical center.

He was treated for two wounds to his back, two to his right side, two to his left side, one to his lower back, one to his left forearm and one to his abdomen, officials said.

He was listed in fair condition today.

Women against violence planning candlelight march

Norma Mendoza, 452-4188, will be the local coordinator as women from 12 Illinois communities stage a candlelight march against violence starting with a rally at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at the State Office Building, Collinsville Avenue and Broadway, East St. Louis.

The marchers will cross Eads Bridge at 8:30 p.m. to meet St. Louis women under the Gateway Arch at 9:30 p.m. Saturday. The evening's topic will be rape and murder cases occurring in this region.

"Take back the night" is the theme of a national effort by Women Against Violence to encourage governments, police, churches, schools and citizens to reduce violence through more public education and increased imprisonment of criminals.

Area women dressed in white will present petitions to local officials and then travel in carpoils to the rally on a guarded parking lot.

Women attired in black with black veils will read stories of area rape victims. Others will wear "sandwich boards" telling of attacks. Then, a white-veiled woman will read of a rape-murder victim "returned from the dead to present petitions to mayors, police, churches and schools."

Police volunteers will escort the marchers across Eads Bridge and the program. The group is negotiating with the Bi-State bus system for the women's return to the East St. Louis parking area.

Sasyk is candidate

Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk will be a candidate for re-election in next April's city elections, to lead a group of associates following the regular city council meeting last week.

Sasyk said he will seek his third full four-year term in the 1981 municipal elections, despite reports from some political sources that he would not seek re-election.

Sasyk first was elected mayor of Madison in a special election in April 1970 to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Stephen Maeras, who had served as mayor of Madison since its incorporation as a city in 1942.

He was elected to his first full term in 1973 and was re-elected in 1977.

The mayor told the Press-Record he has no comment, pertaining to his campaign at this time.

Sasyk, 58, is a native and lifelong resident of Madison. He was a close associate of the late Mayor Maeras.

He has served as a member of the Bi-State Development Agency, as a board member of the Health Systems Agency of the St. Louis Metropolitan Area and as a member of the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council.

He is a member of the Madison-Venice Rotary Club, the Madison Lions Club and has been active in the Madison Amvets post.

Arrest 4 in series of disturbances

Four persons were arrested following a night of disturbances in the 1700 block of Cleveland Blvd.
At 11:45 p.m. Friday,
police were told that a man was on top of the L. Wolf Construction Co. office at 1723 Cleveland Blvd., and when officers arrived, Dale C. Johnston, 28, St. Louis, allegedly jumped off the roof and was caught.

Charles Hardin, 3710
Cleveland Blvd., told police he believed Johnston intended to damage Hardin's car, parked near the building. While in police custody, Johnston allegedly threatened that he would break every window in Hardin's home.

Johnston was released on $35 cash bond and at 1:15 a.m. Saturday, officers were called back to Hardin's home and found every window in the house had been broken.
In addition to about 20 broken windows, a large window air conditioner had been taken from one of the windows and the window frame had been completely torn out in the process. The telephone wire to the house also had been cut, police reported.

There were several other calls on disturbances to Hardin's home and at 2:30 a.m. Saturday, police responded to the fifth call, when they alleged that Johnston and Jeff A. Rill, 19, of 3213 Erin Drive, yelled obscenities and threats at the police. They were arrested and were charged with assault.

At 3:10 a.m. Saturday, officers were called back to the home and arrested Diana

S. Cousins, 28, of 1706
Cleveland Blvd., and Sue P.
Whitford, 23, of 4020 Lake Drive, Pontoon Beach. They were charged with criminal damage to property.

Hardin alleged that Diana Cousins threw a rock through the front window of his home. When Hardin's wife backed the car from the driveway to go call police, Sue Whitford allegedly threw a bottle at the car, hitting and damaging the left rear door, police were told.

Sometime between midnight and 1 a.m. Sunday, two persons climbed in a broken window of the house and removed a white chest of drawers containing children's clothing.

Margaret Brim, owner of the chest, told police. The house had been vacated at that time, because of threats it might be burned down, police were told.

AN "EYE OPENER" FOR ALL MEMBERS OF LOCAL 1715, UNITED AUTO WORKERS AND ALL QUAD-CITIANS . . .

THE GREAT TAKEAWAY BY THE COMPANY:

In a meeting held on July 18, 1980, at the Federal Mediation Offices in St. Louis, Missouri, the company took away their last contract proposal dated June 25, 1980, and presented to us a new proposal that has taken away the majority of the things that we had gained. We, the committee feel that the company found out that there was a small split in our union. And in our opinion they are going to take advantage of this split. The so-called and self-appointed leaders are ex-foremen, some which crossed the picket line in 1956 and a person who had meetings with the flag-burner at A.O. Smith. This will be heavily discussed by your local union President Willard Herzog, at the next membership meeting. Willard Herzog has stated that he will gladly take a lie-detector test in front of the membership along with the man who met and walked with the flag-burner.

Willard Herzog has stated that he has nothing to fear and the committee stands with him. The entire committee has been honest and truthful and have nothing to hide. Do you think that the so-called and self-appointed leaders know what is going on from day to day, that answer would have to be NO. We are now going to step up the pace and let the chips fall where they may. This committee is going to stand up and be counted for a good contract for you and your family. If you think this is wrong then you may condemn us.

SOME OF THE TAKE AWAYS:

No. 1. The company says that all back pay that you have coming, including wages and cost-of-living allowance, will not be paid until Feb. 14, 1981. Your committee voted NO, we cannot accept this.

No. 2. Pension cut back to $11.00 as per the old agreement. Your committee voted NO. We cannot accept this.

No. 3. General Inspectors and Maintenance additives were removed by the company. Your committee feels that our skilled trades members should receive the same amount of money as the electricians and machinists.

No. 4. Debate on severance pay. If the plant closes this committee wants you to get everything that is coming to you.

No. 5. Physical examination after ninety (90) days absence. Your committee is not against physical examinations. But at the time of return to active employment, if you are turned down by the company doctor, we say that your Weekly Sickness and Accident benefits should begin. The company says NO. This issue was discussed with the UAW Region 4 Director James Wright in Chicago. He told your committee: never will he let the company mistreat the old and the sick or destroy their livelihood. The UAW Region 4 Director James Wright stands behind this committee on this issue and the strike.

No. 6. Your committee is still for 30 and Out regardless of age, this proposal was No. 2 on YOUR proposal list.

No. 7. Last but not least, a very important issue; the $2.00 card drug program was accepted by your committee and has now been withdrawn by the company.

And there are many other issues that you, the membership, proposed and verified with your signature and clock number. These were your proposals that you said were important and instructed your committee to fight for.

WE HOPE THAT YOU HAVEN'T FORGOT THIS, YOUR COMMITTEE HAS NOT FORGOTTEN.

Charles Baumann from the Milwaukee home office and the Chief Negotiator for the A.O. Smith-Granite City Plant, stated that the strike had nothing to do with the closing of the plant (this statement also appeared in the newspapers). He repeated this statement about fifteen (15) times. Baumann also stated that he would recommend the closing of the plant because of lack of business at this time and that he could not see new business in the future. If a contract settlement could be reached and approved, Baumann said that would not stop the closing of the plant if the Board of Directors voted to do so. Your committee asked Charles Baumann what he thought the board would do, and he answered that he did not know what action of the board would be.

On Friday, July 18, 1980, your committee proposed a three (3) year contract that both sides could live with. Your committee turned down the last company proposal which you now have in your hand. WHY, because of too many take aways.

PLAIN TRUTH. This year there is no reason for anybody to be confused by phony arguments or swayed by false slogans.

THE FACTS:

In a strike vote by secret ballot, the membership of Local 1715 U.A.W. voted 553 to strike, and 3 voted not to strike.

In addition the membership at three (3) regular union meetings voted and instructed the Bargaining Committee not to bring back any company proposal until the Bargaining Committee, guided by their past bargaining experience; received a contract proposal that would be just and fair for all members of this union.

Neither the President or any Officer of this local union have ever received a petition from anyone concerning a vote on the contract. REMEMBER, only the signatures of members of Local 1715 U.A.W. would be considered valid signatures.

Willard Herzog
Willard Herzog-President

P.S. If it is wrong to fight for the members of this union and their families, so that they can live in dignity, if this is wrong then you may condemn me.

Registration in progress

Registration of young men is in progress at post offices in the Quad-City area and throughout the nation.

No crowds of registrants have been reported, but there has been a relatively steady stream of 20-year-olds filling out Selective Service System registration cards.

Those registering last week were born in 1960. All born that year who have not yet registered are to do so tomorrow at a U. S. post office.

This week's schedule for men born in 1961 calls for those with birthdays in January, February and March to register Monday, July 28; April-June, Tuesday, July 29; July-September, Wednesday, July 30; October-December, Thursday, July 31, and those born in 1961 and unable to register earlier in the week, Friday, Aug. 1.

The registration forms list name, address, telephone number, Social Security number and date of birth. In about 90 days, each registrant will be mailed an acknowledgement letter.

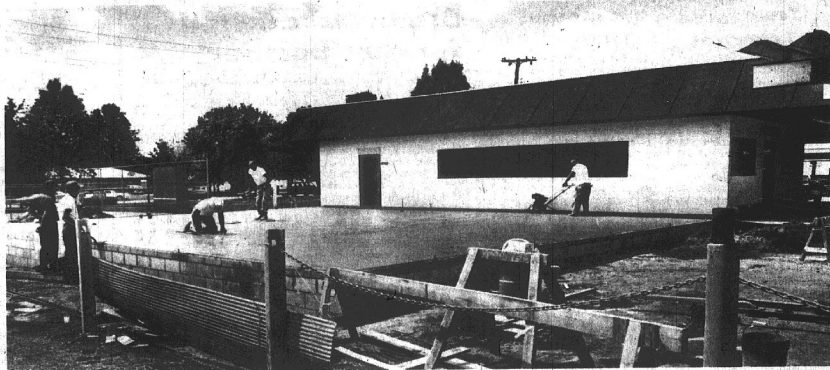

All men born in 1961 are required to register except members of the active armed forces, service academy cadets and midshipmen, and non-immigrant aliens such as members of diplomatic or trade missions and those on student or visitor's visas.

No draft (military induction) or classification actions have been authorized by Congress. The registration does have the approval of the president and Congress, however, and the penalty for failure to register is a fine of up to $10,000, imprisonment for up to five years, or both.

Problems face smaller farms

The attitudes and ages of the persons who run America's small farms may be the biggest barriers to expansion of these businesses.

A study of small and large farms in Southern Illinois suggests that many small farmers are not adopting accepted production and marketing practices. They also are generally older and less educated than their big farm counterparts.

The study was conducted in a 10-county area by Lyle Solverson, associate professor of agribusiness economics in the SIUC School of Agriculture, and graduate student John Ellerman.

Small farms, those selling less than $20,000 in goods yearly, account for about 80 percent of the 2.5 million farms in the United States Agriculture Census, Solverson relates.

Expansion of these small farms, or the lack of expansion, may have a great impact on the structure of agriculture, he comments.

His study found three types of barriers to small farm expansion: —Many small farmers don't know how to use existing agriculture technologies.

—Others refuse to take advantage of those technologies.

Music Under Stars finale at GC park

The Granite City Park District's "Music Under the Stars" choruses will present their final concert of the 1980 summer season at 8 p.m. Tuesday, July 29, in the Wilson Park ice rink pavilion.

The concert will feature many selections from movies, as well as familiar songs from contemporary artists such as Burt Bacharach, Simon and Garfunkel and Lennon and McCartney.

Included in the evening's program are: "Happy Days-Making Our Dreams Come True"; "Consider Yourself"; "Bridge Over Troubled Water"; "The Sound of Silence"; "Lennon-McCartney Medley"; "Leaving on a Jet Plane"; "What the World Needs Now Is Love"; "Candle on the Water"; "Aquarius—Let the Sunshine In"; "The Hands of Time"; "Cabaret"; "Love Is Blue"; "Cherish"; "For All We —Still others are stymied by age and health problems—"natural barriers."

Barriers other than natural ones may be countered with education and extension programs, Solverson said, but the natural barriers present a more formidable limit to small farmers' abilities to expand operations.

Specifically, the study found that small farmers are less likely and less willing than large farmers to rent land, use credit, use outside sources of agriculture information, and use on-farm storage for grains.

Small farmers tended to use recommended production practices less often than large farmers. And they used herbicides, cultivation, insecticides and fungicides less than large farmers.

They also were less likely to use soil tests, balanced rations for livestock, double cropping and pasture rotation. They kept fewer financial records.

The average small farmer was 61.4 years old, 16 years older than the average large farmer.

More than one-fourth of the small farmers said their ages limited their farm income. Another 12.5 percent said health was a limiting factor.

Former husband faces 3 charges

Bob A. Stern, 21, of 1433 Third St., Madison, was charged with disorderly conduct and two counts of battery after he allegedly was involved in a disturbance at the home of Brenda Gruenfelder, 2536 Washington Ave., last week.

Police were called to the home and alleged breaking up a fight in the kitchen involving three men, including Stern. Mrs. Gruenfelder said Stern was her former husband and alleged he kicked in the front door, struck her several times with a fist, then entered the kitchen and struck Larry Rowe, St. Jacobs, Mo., with his fist several times.

Police arrived and arrested Stern. Mrs. Gruenfelder and Rowe signed battery complaints against him and police signed a disorderly conduct complaint, officers said.

Stern was taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center for a cut to his head and he was released to police, who lodged him in the city jail.

Sun linked to skin cancers

By MARY RICHARDS
Ill. Department of Public Health

Are all sun worshippers aware that skin cancer is the most common form of cancer? And that overexposure to the ultraviolet rays of the sun is the leading cause?

In the U.S., about 300,000 new cases of skin cancer are reported each year.

Although most skin cancers do not develop until after the fourth decade of life, they have occurred in infants and children.

Some persons can have prolonged, accumulated exposure to the sun and not develop skin cancer. It is now believed that the structure of the cells of those who do develop skin cancer somehow differs from the cells of those who do not.

If you are a fair-skinned, blue-eyed blonde or redhead, you are more likely to develop skin cancer than your darker-skinned neighbor, probably because your skin lacks sufficient quantities of the pigment substance, melanin, which filters out the ultraviolet rays of the sun.

Blacks, among whom skin cancer is rare, have enough melanin to protect their skin from the harmful rays of the sun; the albino has none.

A suntan is deceptive. It can give you a glowing, healthy look while, at the same time, it prematurely ages and damages your skin.

To avoid this damage, you must limit your exposure to the sun. Start with 15 minutes a day before 10 a.m. or after 4 p.m., slowly increase your exposure time day by day.

You should use suntan lotion containing para-aminobenzoic acid (PABA). Suntan lotion with PABA can be worn all day, the year around, for protection against ultraviolet radiation.

Use it on cloudy days as well as sunny days because ultraviolet rays penetrate the atmosphere and are reflected from both sand and snow.

You should replace the PABA suntan lotion if you sweat, or swim or wash your skin.

Fortunately, skin cancer is the easiest form of cancer to cure. Today, 92 percent of skin cancer patients are free of their disease following medically approved treatment.

It is believed that the cure rate would increase to 98 or 100 percent if patients would see their doctors soon enough.

Only a physician can determine the nature of an abnormal skin growth—whether it is benign, precancerous or malignant. Bring any change to the attention of your physician.

Man abandons stolen car

Following a high speed chase through Venice last week, the driver of a 1979 Cadillac abandoned the vehicle in the 100 block of Graniteville Street and fled from officers on foot.

A check on the 1981 Indiana license plate showed the vehicle had been stolen in Kokomo, Ind.

The pursuit started near the McKinley Bridge when the vehicle passed the toll plaza without paying and a squad car enroute to the scene saw the car traveling south on Fourth Street (Route 3).

The driver turned west onto Graniteville Street, south on Third and west on Weber Street.

Despite the use of sirens and red lights, the operator failed to stop and turned north on Second Street and then again onto Graniteville which comes to a dead end in the 100 block.

The driver got out of the vehicle, ran through a yard and then continued running south along the adjacent TCG railroad tracks.

He was described as white, thin build, about 19 or 20 years old with blond curly hair. He wore a gray T-shirt with "USA" written across the front and blue jeans.

Dramatic farewell for club 'brother'

Escorted by a dramatic entourage of motorcycles, the funeral procession for Dennis Jamison, 28, of 1938 Benton St., proceeded slowly from Sadick Funeral Home in Madison to St. Joseph Catholic Church in Granite City, Thursday morning.

Mass was recited at the church for Mr. Jamison, who drowned while wading in Carlyle Lake, Ill., at 7:45 p.m. Sunday, July 20.

The escorting cyclists were members of the Invaders, a national motorcycle club that operates from Northern Indiana.

About 30 members came here for the funeral, some from as far away as Denver and Cincinnati.

Mr. Jamison, known as "Crasher," was a member of the Invaders for nine years.

His brother, Michael "Mongo" Bilbey of Cedar Lake, Ind., is club leader.

In addition to attending the church services, the club members provided the escort to Memorial Park Cemetery at Interstate 70 and Lucas and Hunt Road in North St. Louis County.

At the cemetery, special rituals were observed in tribute to Mr. Jamison, including the firing of pistols into the air, the equivalent of a "21-gun military salute."

Club members cut patches and pins from the "colors," the vests they wear to identify their club, and tossed them into the grave, then each member helped to cover the coffin with several shovelfuls of earth.

A spokesman for the local funeral home said Friday the Invaders were "very well behaved and respectful."

He was employed as a mechanic at Carol Towing Co., St. Louis.

Mr. Jamison's mother, Mrs. Kathleen (McKernan) Rowane of Granite City, died at 3 p.m. Sunday, July 27, at St. Elizabeth Medical Center, it was learned today.

A related story appears in the obituary column.

In addition to his brother, Michael, also surviving are a 9-year-old daughter, Shannon Lee Jamison, St. Louis; his father, Joseph Michael Rowane of Granite City; seven other brothers, John, Joe, Dan, Tom, Tim, Roy and Ron Rowane and two sisters, Margaret and Kathy Rowane, all of Granite City; a grand mother, Mrs. Margaret Guthrie of St. Louis; and many club "brothers."

On the trail of illicit drugs

Once, you couldn't buy more than 10 pounds of sugar at a time in some parts of the country without arousing suspicions of moonshining. Nowadays, if you buy some anhydrous ammonia along with acetic anhydride and follow it up with a little toluene, you almost assuredly will have government chemists on your trail.

The revenuers are still active, but a new breed of illicit operators, makers of "controlled drug substances," has spawned a new type of enforcer. He is doing battle under the banner of the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA), the forensic chemist.

Take this recent case: A DEA laboratory learned that about a ton of anhydrous ammonia had been delivered to a company supposedly involved in the textile and dye industry.

The lab found that the company also had bought acetic anhydride.

An investigation was started when a forensic chemist told DEA special agents that these chemicals could easily be made into substances that could end up as methaqualone.

In 1979, the DEA seized 221 clandestine laboratories that were turning out drugs as follows: methaqualone (speed), 121; phenylcyclohexylamine (PCP or angel dust), 47; amphetamine (uppers), 20; methaqualone (qualaludes), 7; and all others, 26.

In the above case, it turned out that the product wasn't methaqualone but a powerful sedative and hypnotic agent called mecloqualone, also on the Controlled Substances Act list.

The chemist was watching for delivery of any one of several chemicals that could be used with those already on hand to synthesize methaqualone. But nine 55-gallon drums of a totally different chemical, o-chloroaniline, appeared.

Three tabletting machines, two 200-gallon glass-lined vessels, a large electric drying oven and three large capacity scales also were delivered, indicating a sizable operation.

The chemist reviewed the scientific literature and found that substituting o-chloroaniline for one of the chemicals he had been watching for could result in the production of mecloqualone.

He also found in the literature a procedure for making the drug with the chemicals at hand, which he followed with successful results.

A search warrant was issued and 30 exhibits of seized chemicals and equipment were removed as evidence. From the scientific viewpoint, all elements for prosecution were now present:

1. All reagents and equipment necessary for production of a controlled substance were on the premises at the time of seizure.

2. A valid synthetic method for producing the drug was recognized in the literature, requiring only the items seized.

3. The finished product was found on the premises.

4. The projected synthesis used in the clandestine laboratory was successfully duplicated by the DEA.

This case, described in Analytical Chemistry, published by the American Chemical Society, is said to demonstrate the effectiveness of teaming forensic chemists with criminal investigators to track down illicit drug operations at their sources.

It is estimated that closing this single operation kept a potential 2.7 million mecloqualone tablets from hitting the streets.

"The DEA forensic chemist," the article concludes, "is confronted with various problems and situations which require expertise in many areas of chemistry, a knowledge of law, ability to present findings in court, and ability to use the correct analytical approach."

Sues realtors

David Farley of Granite City has filed suit in Madison County Circuit Court against William G. and LaVern Wimberly, Carl Hoffman and Carl Hoffman Realty.

The suit contends that an unimproved lot at 6 Gloria Lane, owned by the Wimberlys, was put up for sale by Schroeder through the Multiple Listing Service.

Farley alleges that he purchased the lot from Hoffman for $6,500 after telling Hoffman he intended to construct a home there. The suit alleges Hoffman told Farley he could build the house, but Farley later learned that building on the lot is prohibited, since the property is in a flood hazard area.

Farley then demanded his money back, but has not received it, even though the land is of no practical value to him, according to the lawsuit.

In the first count of the suit, Farley seeks in excess of $15,000. In the second count, he seeks in excess of $15,000 actual damages and $100,000 in punitive damages.

Illinois Power plan budgets energy costs

"We want to help." That's the message Illinois Power Co. is giving its residential customers on their utility bills.

The recent record-breaking temperatures that hit Illinois caused Illinois Power's customers to use their air conditioners more than normal. And as a result of this increased usage, their utility bills will be higher than this time last year, a spokesman said.

Utility bills now going to Illinois Power residential customers who have air conditioners could be 50 percent higher than the same period last year and over last month. These bills reflect about 10 to 14 days of the high heat, he added.

If the heat continues, IP customers with air conditioners could find their bill double those over the same period last year and over last month. This would result in electric usage during continually hot weather.

To help cushion these increased costs, Illinois Power is offering its residential customers a choice to go on a payment-leveling plan called Budget Billing, according to Gary L. Secor, director-customer relations for IP. This will allow the customer to know in advance what his utility bill will be and to escape the highs and lows that come with the seasonal changes and to get a more manageable bill.

The offer of help is located on the top of the customer's utility bill. A more detailed explanation of the help available is included with the bill.

In addition, people who may have trouble paying their bills may contact their local Illinois Power office to discuss other types of payment arrangements available to them, Secor said.

"Homeowners who try to conserve energy tend to moderately use their air conditioners when temperatures push into the 90's," Secor said. "However, when the mercury climbs into the 90s, the discomfort becomes too much and the air conditioner is turned on and runs constantly."

As the temperature gets hotter outside, the efficiency of an air conditioner goes down. The unit has to work harder and longer to cool your house and, as a result, more electricity is used," Secor said.

The temperatures in Illinois Power's territory were higher this year compared to last year, the company's northern service territory experienced temperatures above the 90-degree mark 19 times between June 23 and July 20 compared to only two times for the same period in 1979.

The company's central service area saw the temperature surpass the 90-degree mark 19 times during the same time period this year compared to only once last year.

In the southern service region, the mercury climbed past the 90-degree mark 23 times between June 23 and July 20, compared to four times during the same period a year ago.

Another service available to Illinois Power customers is a free home energy audit in which a trained person checks a customer's home for energy efficiency. The home is checked for insulation, weather stripping and caulking, whether there are storm windows and doors, proper attic ventilation and the efficiency of heating and cooling equipment. Persons wishing an energy audit may contact the energy use department at the local Illinois Power office.

Arrest 2 on 29th place

Two young men were arrested following disturbances at a home in the 700 block of 29th Place Thursday.

John D. Blumer Jr., 20, of 707 Twenty-ninth Place, was charged with battery after he allegedly struck his sister, Betty Ford, 19, 25th St., Madison, with a fist and kicked her at Blumer's home.

Police discovered that a Collinsville warrant also was on file for Blumer's arrest on another battery charge, it was alleged. He was released from Granite City custody on a notice to appear in court and was turned over to Collinsville authorities.

One-half hour later, police were called back to the house and alleged Doyle D. Ford, 25, of 707 Twenty-ninth Place, was creating a disturbance and was told by police to leave. He complied, but returned a short time later and was arrested and charged with disorderly conduct.

He was released at 2:55 p.m. Thursday on $35 cash bond.

blood pressure testing and vehicle safety checks for anyone who wishes to take advantage of the free services.

This is the third consecutive year the tests have been provided by the National Guard, with the arrangements made by the Madison Lions. The guardsmen will not make any repairs to autos found faulty, but will warn the owner that repairs are needed and should be made at a facility of the owner's choosing.

Charge ex-husband

Edward Dean, 26, of 2036 Washington Ave., was arrested in the 2000 block of Washington Avenue Saturday morning on a complaint from his ex-wife.

Joyce Dean, 22, 223 Iowa St., alleged battery. She said he was in an auto with her and their 3-year-old daughter, Amy, when the engine of the car quit at 24th Street and Madison Avenue at 12:25 a.m. Saturday. The man allegedly became angry and when Mrs. Dean got her daughter out of the car, he allegedly grabbed both of them and pulled them through a pile of brush on 24th Street, causing a small cut to the girl's left cheek and scratching Mrs. Dean's neck and shoulders.

Similarly, persons found to have high blood pressure will be advised to consult a physician, a spokesman said.

Last year, about 200 automobiles were tested in Madison by guardsmen, 150 of them in one day.

Hours for the free check-ups will be 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 2, and 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 3.

All four walls in another bedroom were damaged, the thermostat was pulled from the wall and was broken and a heat register was pulled off the floor. The rear door lock and screen were broken from the inside.

24 HOUR SERVICE

FROM: The Management of Illinois Distributing Company Distributors of Anheuser-Busch Beers

TO: Our Valued Customers, Friends and Members of the Public

Our employees have been on strike since July 1, 1980. We, of course, recognize that at the end of a contract the employees have a right to strike to obtain additional benefits. This right to strike is a precious right and one that came about as a result of a long history of employers taking advantage of their employees. However, such is far from the case at our company. Our employees are some of the highest paid in the industry. In the area of employee benefits, working conditions and improved employee-employer relations, we have been and are considered leaders in the industry.

We have offered our employees benefits equal to or better than the benefits that have already been accepted by the employees of all our competitors. We are at a loss to understand why our employees apparently want to put us at a competitive disadvantage with other beer distributors. We assure all of you that we would not expect our employees to take less than the pattern that has been established in the industry — and we are absolutely at a loss as to why our employees want substantially more than has been accepted in the industry. We want to be able to provide our customers with a competitive price. We ask the question of our employees as to how they expect us to keep a competitive price and at the same time expect us to pay benefits substantially in excess of what our competitors are paying.

There may have been some misunderstanding of the company's position in this strike and we hope that this statement will help clear the air on this matter.

HEAT WAVE

How Quad Cities athletes are coping with the long, hot summer

By KEVIN ALLEN
of the Press-Record
GRANITE CITY — It's the heat. Everyone complains about it, but no one seems to do anything about it.

With the kind of readings the thermometer has turned out recently, no one could be blamed if the last thing on their mind was an active sports life.

Unless the relative cool of the last few days is only a respite from the triple-digit temperature that has scorched the area the last couple of weeks, the summer sporting life seems to be easing back to normal.

But oh, those last two weeks. You remember, over-worked air conditioners. Sweating in the shade (what shade could be found). Doing everything and anything not to have to face the searing out of doors.

All that's fine if you happen to work, say, inside a refrigerated office. But what of those who's livelihood depends on catering to the need to recreate?

Namely, the people who provide the games people play. "It's been too hot for people to even sit out in chairs or walk around on the hot concrete," said Richard Williams, manager of Paddlers Swim Club.

When it gets too hot for swimming... well then, you know it's hot. "It's been better now that it's cooler but for the last two weeks, we've had

"I really can't explain it, they were just grouchy or something. You'd have to have been here," he said. If you can't have fun at a swimming pool because of the heat, just where can you go when it's better than 100° indoors, naturally.

Well, yes, and no. Bowland Lanes bowling alley says the heat has helped business despite (Continued on Page 9)

Corral spins wheels in Inter-City chase

By TOM SCHOCKER

For the Press-Record
EDWARDSVILLE — If there is a quick cure for split personality, Ken Crawford could use a big batch of whatever might help. Either that, or reduce the Inter-City League play on Sundays to one game and hope for the best.

Granite Cityans split twinbill with Edwardsville

Sound confusing? It's not really complicated, just frustrating for Corral Liguors manager Crawford. The last time his team put together back-to-back triumphs was against East Alton some four weeks ago. Form that point the Cowboys divided three twin-bills which included an important dual with Edwardsville at Hoppe Park yesterday.

Losing a heart-breaker in the opener 5-2, Corral stormed back to crush Edwardsville 11-1 in the nightcap to keep its hopes for a league crown alive.

Both games got off on solid footing, however a sharp pitching performance was wasted. "(Randy) Lyerla had a good game," said Crawford. "They didn't get a hit off of him until the fourth inning. Even in that inning, the hits were infeld and blooper types." Lyerla still managed to throw fire, striking out six.

A solo home run by Dave Hagencrook in the initial frame gave Crawford and Edwardsville thoughts of another show of offensive strength. But the round-tripper was only a brief moment of power as Edwardsville's starting pitcher, Tony Stajduhar, shut the Cowboys down cold.

"You can't take anything away from Stajduhar," said Crawford. "We had out hits. They just weren't timely. We left a lot of base runners. Hell, we must have left seven or eight runners." The Cowboys were also given six walks to play with, but couldn't grab another tally until the final frame.

John Krekovich came around to touch home plate on Corral's sixth base hit of the game. Doug Rains collected the RBI. It was too late though, Edwardsville had already scored five runs. The ball just had eyes for them," said Crawford.

You can say the roles were reversed and the eyes on the ball were wide open for Corral in the second game, as the Cowboys scored in every inning except the opening frame. "We were down naturally," said Crawford, "because we could have been tied for first

Winfield dumps Sauget with tie in key 'Just For Kicks' game

By KEVIN ALLEN

of the Press-Record
GRANITE CITY — The scoring came in one quick lump, and that was just fine with Winfield Construction, one of two contestants remaining with a chance for the "Just For Kicks" soccer league crown.

The field of contenders for the league championship was narrowed with yesterday's game at the Army Depot. Winfield Construction and Sauget Racquet Club played to a 1-1 tie, eliminating Sauget, and advancing Winfield to a truth-will-tell game against Belleville Area College Wednesday.

"This was an important game," said Harry Breckner, coach of Winfield Construction. "We had to have this one or Wednesday doesn't mean a thing." Winfield faced a somewhat easier task than Sauget, though. Winfield held a slight lead in the standings over Sauget. A tie was as good as a win.

Either way — tie or win — Winfield was in. That's why, halfway through the first half, when both teams rallied for goals, Winfield had a definite upper hand. "We took this game very seriously," Sauget forward Charlie Bennington said.

"We just couldn't find the net. We had some chances, but it just wouldn't go." A large amount of Sauget's frustration had to do with Winfield's second-half style of play. As the minutes ticked off, Winfield fell further and further into a defensive team. As the pressure mounted — on Winfield to hold on to its precarious advantage, and for Sauget to break it — the game became more physical.

In the second half, Sauget was called for five fouls compared to Winfield's two. In the first half the statistics were almost opposite that. Winfield was called five times, and Sauget once.

"That was one of the most physical teams we've played," Bennington said. "It was a tough game." The game's rough and tumble slant was set in the first half. Sauget broke on top when Dave Hartscher, in the right spot at the right time, picked up a rebound in the right of the goal and scored with a shot in the upper left corner.

Sauget enjoyed its lead only a matter of minutes, though. Winfield's Steve Schell evened the game moments later. Taking a crossing pass to the left of the goal, Schell sent a long, low shot skidding past Sauget goalie Tony Pierce.

Alton's luck runs out

BELLEVILLE — The good luck finally ran out for Alton's American Legion baseball team here late last night. After outlasting Belleville 10-8 in 14 innings in the first game, Alton fell 9-4 in the second in the District 22 Championship best two-of-three series.

Alton lost Saturday to Belleville 5-5, setting up a "must-win" situation here yesterday in the first game. Using strong innings (12 of them) from pitcher Tim Harwood, Alton finally came out on top. But in the second game, which started at 10:30 last night and ended after 1 o'clock this morning, Belleville took advantage of a depleted Alton pitching staff.

The winning pitcher in the second game was Jeff Gass. Orban took the loss for Alton. Alton won the North Division championship by beating Collinsville twice last Thursday and Friday by identical 3-0 scores.

'80 Olympics—GC style

GRANITE CITY — There was Olympic boycott Thursday night — at least not in Granite City's Wilson Park.

Swarms of Granite City youngsters took over Wilson Park Thursday in the annual Granite City Park District Junior Olympics. The events might be a little different from those in the real Olympics going on the Moscow right now. But to the children taking part, they were every bit as important — and probably more fun.

Events like the softball throw, the obstacle course and the sack race went along with the more traditional events such as the high jump, long jump, long distance run, shot put and dashes.

Nameoki School won the overall team championship with 128 points. Logan was second with 104, followed by Webster with 101, Niedringhaus with 63, Community Center with 57 and Wilson with 56.

A complete run-down of individual results will appear in Thursday's Press-Record.

THE PLAY, THE CALL. Shortstop Jeff Parker of McDonald's makes a tag on Corral's

Mike Robertson Thursday in Inter-City League action at GCHS South. At right, the two wait for doubleheader. Each team claimed a 9-1 victory. (Press-Record Photos by Ed Sedell)

McDonald's, Corral split I-C doubleheader

By TOM SCHOCKER for the Press-Record
GRANITE CITY — The third and final chapter of the Granite City rivalry in the Inter-City League has been written. With the results tabulated, it looks like McDonald's will lay claim on the city's crown. At least for the regular season.

Although McDonald's and Corral Liquors split their doubleheader Thursday at Granite City's South field, McDonald's prevailed in the season series, four games to two. A very long evening saw Corral power its way to a 9-1 win in the opener while McDonald's pulled the same number, notching a duplicate 9-1 triumph in the nightcap.

Before the night's action got under way, the Inter-City League race looked tight. McDonald's was holding on to a slim half a game lead over Maryville for top spot. Corral trailed by a game and a half, but refused to give up its quest for the league title. Blasting McDonald's pitching staff for 12 base hits, Corral proved it still meant business. From those dozen rips, the Cowboys sent two shots out of the park while tagging three other for extra base hits. "This is the first time we have lost a game by more than one run," said McDonald's manager Ray Harris. "Our pitching just the distance Herstein made sure of that. In fact, McDonald's usual stable performance from the hill was a number of strokes over par as two walks led to Corral's initial tally. Instead of getting better, Harris' problems turned sour when the third frame unveiled itself. As soon as runners had positioned themselves at first and second, Dave Hagenbrock cleanly and discretely drilled a shot over the left field fence. Corral had scored all the runs it needed. Pitcher Dan Herstein made sure of that.

Again McDonald's starting pitcher Terry Lindsay was the recipient of Corral's never ending power. Mike Clark blasted a pitch for a solo homer in the fourth. Tom Greco followed with a triple as Mike Robertson collected the RBI. The game was getting out of hand.

Corral lacked on three more tallies in the fifth when Greco smashed his second triple of the night, scoring two. Robertson hauled in his second RBI scoring Greco on a single.

It wasn't the long ball, but the free pass being served up in the nightcap. The Corral pitching staff looked like a different group of hurlers. "It was like Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," said Crawford. "They gave up 10 walks in which McDonald's made good use of scoring five runs via the base on balls. "I had hoped to get four or five good innings," said Crawford, before I brought Faulkner in."

Greg Faulkner was called upon sooner than expected as Crawford, who started on the mound, lasted only two outs in the inning. Walks to Dan Schaus and Jeff Parker prompted Jeff Tretter to rip a two-out triple. Mike Degonia then sent him trotting home when he singled. McDonald's had reversed the tables, jumping on top to stay. "It was terrible," said Crawford. "We couldn't get the ball over the plate."

Crawford's final pitching change, number four, found the strike zone, but McDonald's still managed to squeeze a couple of runs across. Tretter's third and fourth RBI of the game sent Bob Ford and Parker home after they had reached base on a single and an error. "We just had better pitching than they did, that's all," said Harris.

Two teams trade 9-1 final scores

Ten Steamers games on TV

ST. LOUIS — The St. Louis Steamers announced today that ten games of their 1980-81 game schedule will be commercially telecast to the St. Louis area. Tracey Leiwake, general manager of the Steamers, and Terry Leiwake, executive producer of Sportsview Productions, Inc., unveiled a television package that will bring six Steamer games to the home, fans on KNDL-TV Channel 30 and four games on KMOX-TV Channel 4.

The combined VHF-UHF package is unique to television in the Gateway City and was designed to bring extra coverage to Steamer fans. Another distinct facet of the TV deal is that Sportsview Productions has purchased the actual air time from both stations and will be responsible for production and for selling the commercial spots.

"Sportsview aired 47 telecasts of indoor soccer last season all over the country," noted Terry Leiwake. "I believe in the game. It has proven to be a tremendous television sport. It's a large financial risk on my company's behalf to purchase the air time but we purchased 22 hours of prime time on WPIX in New York last season for our Arrows' package and it was great for the team and the sponsors."

"I think we can top the effort in St. Louis. My attitude is a reflection of sponsors, like Anheuser-Busch and their willingness to support indoor soccer on television," Anheuser-Busch will be a major sponsor of the Steamers' television package this coming season just as they were during the 1979-80 season. Joe Orsato, director of sales for KMOX-TV said that his station is very excited about the television deal. "The reason we took this package is that we felt there was a need for more coverage of the Steamers in the St. Louis area. The team was extremely popular here and indoor soccer is certainly the sport of the future."

The fans showed us they were interested in the Steamers last year and when there's a demand for certain programming, we will bring it to the public. The package for 1980-81 will include six games and two half hour specials on the Steamers."

KNDL's general manager, Jack Patrick, is anticipating the Steamers' television package with high expectations. "We're looking forward to our second year of bringing the Steamers to the fans. After a successful inaugural season we're pleased to be bringing an expanded schedule to the Gateway City area."

The fans showed us they were interested in the Steamers last year and when there's a demand for certain programming, we will bring it to the public. The package for 1980-81 will include six games and two half hour specials on the Steamers."

Robertson didn't need to swipe second as Jeff Scarb drilled a triple. Brian Sikes completed the onslaught singling and Corral moved into the drivers seat for good. Mike Clark picked up an RBI in the fifth, Hagenbrock collected one in the sixth while Rains and Robertson added two more in the seventh. In fact Robertson was a thorn in Edwardsville's side all game. In addition to his four base hits which included two doubles, he knocked in three runs while scoring three himself. "Mike (Robertson) was hitting .566 before today's games," said Crawford. "He's our best hitter and leading the league in batting."

Heat

some trouble with air conditioning. "We've had more people in than normally in the summer," said Bowland employee John Halwachs. "We've had people in till one in the morning. That's usual for the winter but not always in the summer. Halwachs said participation in summer tournaments has been up as has open play. "I wouldn't mind at all if the heat wave continued," he said.

On the other hand of another indoor sports facility, Spartan Health, Tennis, and Racquetball Club, reported business down. "We're always slow during the summer," said Spartan director and vice-president Terry Waggoner. "But during the last week or two it seems like people just don't want to get out."

Waggoner's club is fully air conditioned, but the swimming pool has been closed recently for repairs. "Things might have picked up if the pool was in operation, but I don't know," Waggoner said. There always those folks, though, who play come rain or come shine. Soccer comes to mind first. Yesterday, after a game in the "Just For Kicks" soccer league, Dave Hatcher came off the field soaked, as usual. Only this time the almost unbearable heat wasn't to blame for his appears. The game was played in a cool, steady, misty rain. "I'd rather play in this day," Hatcher said. "Oh, the heat." And he just shook his head at the memory of recent sunny contests. Everyone complains.

Navy Mothers make donations

Three naval hospitals and the Alpha House in Granite City are the recipients of $25 donations from the Quad-City Navy Mothers' group.

The monetary gifts were authorized at the unit's meeting Thursday night at the VFW Hall.

Additionally, a total of $300 was sent to the Navy Mothers of America to be credited and returned for local welfare needs.

Commander Irma Manning presided at the meeting. Hostesses were Norma Darnell and Clara Layton, who served refreshments and conducted games.

Gladys Markovich won the "mystery package" and a special gift was awarded to Jean Telor.

Prizes at games were received by Alberta Ethington, Mrs. Markovich, Hazel Jones and Edna Miller.

The business meeting was set for Aug. 14.

Tom Welch seeks slot on appellate judge ballot

By KARL L. MONROE

Thomas Welch, Collinsville attorney who was magistrate of the Third Circuit Court from November, 1955, to June 1971, and first vice president of the Illinois Circuit Magistrates' Association in 1970-71, appears certain to be the Republican candidate for the Fifth District Appellate Judge position voted by Judge Ed Eperbacher.

The choice is to be made by 31 GOP county chairman this week.

Robert Mays, East St. Louis, surprised most political observers by defeating Horace Calvo and Paul (Press) Waller for the Democratic nomination in the March primary.

Nobody ran on the Republican ballot. Eperbacher received the most write-in votes but did not become the candidate, so a vacancy exists.

Democrats have been pointing to a constitutional provision that candidates for judge get on the ballot by primary or petition, to bolster their contention that the Republicans are barred from filling the vacancy.

Republican lawyer William (Chuck) Evers III of Collinsville, who was legal counsel to a special judicial committee headed by Randolph County chairman Richard Dethrow, thinks otherwise.

The general statute controlling elections then provides for filling vacancies by action of party committee.

Nobody filed to be a Republican candidate, but that was before Mays, who is regarded by Republicans as vulnerable, was nominated and before the Ronald Reagan euphoria hit the party. Now party leaders are determined to run somebody.

Welch says "The whole thing right now is getting on the ballot."

"It was kind of a draft situation. Jerry Cohn, had the inside track for it, but decided not to run. I'll give it a shot and see where we can go with it."

Welch has no idea what the Illinois Board of elections will do with a certificate of candidacy from the GOP county chairman. If the election board accepted the certification, Welch expects Mays might sue to get the name removed.

Welch and Evers both mentioned a U.S. constitutional ground to require the Board of Elections to put a Republican on the ballot, a 14th Amendment application of the equal protection clause.

They interpret this to mean judges should not have barriers thrown up against getting on a ballot that do not apply to other candidates.

Evers puts it, "What's different about judges?"

Welch is a member of the law firm of Welch, Welch and Welch in Collinsville.

Madison County GOP chairman, Dr. Ed Ragdale, called Welch, "a well-qualified, highly-regarded candidate," and said, "I'm sure that he will be the nominee."

Children abducted

Granite City police are investigating the abduction of two children from the 2500 block of Northbridge about 12:35 p.m. Saturday.

Police are searching for the children's father, who has weekend visitation rights, but he had not notified his ex-wife, mother of the children, that he intended to take the children.

A couple who was watching the children for the mother said that a car stopped in front of their home and the driver got out and ordered the children into the car without saying a word to the resident.

When the resident yelled at the man to stop, the driver allegedly got out of his car, grabbed the resident by the shirt, shook a fist in his face and threatened to hit him. The driver then returned to the car and left the scene, with the children.

At 1:10 p.m. Saturday, the auto stopped again in the 2500 block of Northbridge and the driver yelled at the resident to come outside, it was reported.

When he complied, the driver allegedly displayed a baseball bat and threatened the resident with it, police were told. The children were in the car during the second incident, the resident said.

Policeman injured in scuffle with prisoner

Granite City Police Patrolman Ed Wiesehan was injured when he struggled with a prisoner in the rear seat of his squad car at 4:30 a.m. Saturday.

Charged with aggravated battery is Danny E. Caughran, 22, of 2871 Madison Ave., who also faces charges of improper lane usage, reckless driving, having a suspended driver's license and speeding (65 mph in a 35 mph zone).

Wiesehan said he was watching traffic on Madison Street and Grand Avenue and alleged the driver used profanity toward him and refused to cooperate or give Wiesehan his driver's license.

The driver finally threw the driver's license on the ground and told the officer that if he wanted it, he could pick it up, it was reported.

Wiesehan handcuffed him and put him in the back seat of the squad car, he said.

Obscenity and threats continued until the car got behind the Granite City Police Building, when the prisoner allegedly began banging his head on the plexiglass shield between the front and rear seats of the squad car, Wiesehan reported.

He said he stopped the car, opened the rear door to stop the prisoner from banging his head and alleged the prisoner kicked the officer's head, banged his knee into the officer's forehead and kicked his body.

Force was used to take the prisoner inside, book him and put him in a cell, it was reported.

A short time later, Wiesehan began feeling pain to his head and lost his balance. He was taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center where he was admitted for observation, according to official reports.

HIGHER BOX BOARD SALES, EARNINGS

Alton Box Board Co. announced last week that sales for the second quarter of 1980 were $83,000,000, compared with $75,940,000 in 1979. Net income for the quarter was $2,146,000 or $1.28 per share, compared with $1,545,000 or 68 cents per share for similar quarter in 1979.

For the first six months of 1980, net sales totaled $173,432,000 and net income was $5,358,000 or $2.61 per share. In the first six months of 1979, sales were $148,485,000 and income $2,350,000 or $1.05 per share.

A spokesman said the results continue to be favorably influenced by savings from the company's new washer and evaporator facilities at its Jacksonville, Fla., kraft mill, completed in December 1979, as well as economies in use of fuel oil. He added that current operations are being affected by the economic recession.

playing tadpole. In tadpole, the children are divided into two teams, one runs a course around a small circle made by the other team members as they pass a kickball from one to another in a race of coordination and speed. The teams then switch positions and later compare their scores.

The Tri-City Area YMCA is conducting a daily day-camp program at the Granite City Army Installation and at the "Y" facilities downtown.

Children registered for the program begin their day taking a short bus ride to the Army Installation where their first activity is swimming. They stay at the pool for about an hour, then head for the picnic area nearby for games and other activities.

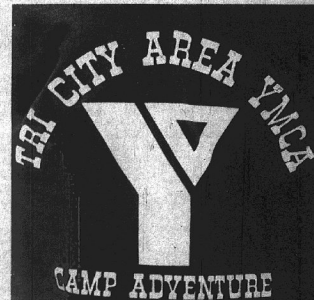

Some of the games played by the youngsters are kickball, tadpole, and dodgeball. Frisbees are usually buzzing around the area and some of the children play whiffleball.

Swings and seesaws are also available for the children. Sack lunches are brought by the youngsters after which arts and crafts are taught and enjoyed by all. At the end of the day the children are bused back to the YMCA where they take another plunge in the pool at the downtown facility.

On special days the youngsters are taken on field trips which have included Grant's Farm and the St. Louis Zoo.

The staff for the day-camp program are Tina Taylor, director, Leslie Roberts, Don Folsat, Ruth Geggus and Greg Bargiel, all senior counselors. Also, Connie Siebert, Carla Murray and Jaffee Woolfork, all junior counselors.

BPW supports local air pollution effort

A resolution in support of Granite City's Air Pollution Control Department from the Granite City Business & Professional Women's Club was presented to the Granite City Council last week.

The council is to decide in the next week whether there are to be cuts in the city budget before it is adopted July 29, including possible abolishment of the city's pollution control board.

The text of the resolution passed by BPW follows: "Whereas Granite City is widely recognized as having one of the most serious air pollution problems in Illinois;

"Whereas excessive air pollution is recognized as detrimental to health, property and quality of life;

"Whereas this community has, after many years, developed an effective, well-trained staff to monitor rule violations and air quality and to investigate complaints;

"Whereas the air pollution control staff functions as an effective deterrent to rule violations and provides the essential data and records used by the attorney general's office in any legal actions necessary to improve air quality;

"Whereas any reduction in the city's share of the budget for its air pollution control department will result in the loss of federal grant funds received for this purpose from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency;

"Therefore be it resolved that the Granite City Business & Professional Women's Club place itself on public record in favor of maintaining the city's present $55,000 share of the air pollution budget to preserve this vital program for the benefit and progress of the community."

The resolution, passed

July 16, was signed by Rosalie Stern, BPW president, and Betty Roberts, legislative chairman.

Datsun plant being delayed

Takashi Ishihara, Nissan Motor Co. president, said at a news conference in Japan last week that it is delaying plans to build a Datsun truck assembly plant in the U.S. pending further studies.

There is speculation that the firm has not yet decided on a site. John Castle, Illinois director of commerce and community affairs, noted rumors Wednesday that the plant may be built near Memphis, Tenn., but said Illinois is still in the running, including two sites here in the vicinity of I-270 and Route 3.

These two states named are believed to be the only ones still under consideration. Studied previously were Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky, Wisconsin and Kansas.

Castle said Illinois has better transportation links and energy resources than Tennessee, which he said may have an edge in labor costs. Illinois Gov. James R. Thompson has visited Japan twice to seek automotive plants.

Mail may be held during vacations

Before leaving on vacation several simple steps can make sure mail is handled smoothly while you're away, Postmaster Jack D. Wilkins said last week.

"Ask a neighbor or relative to remove mail and newspapers from your mailbox daily, or have mail held at the post office," he said.

"A written request to hold mail up to 30 days can be given to your letter carrier or submitted at the local post office. If an extended absence is anticipated, a temporary mail forwarding order can be requested."

Wilkins stressed the importance of not letting mail accumulate in a mailbox, saying "It's a sign even novice burglars can detect."

Other tips include taking an ample supply of stamps and postal cards on your trip and remembering to take addresses of those to whom the vacationer may write. "Don't forget, post cards only require 10-cent postage, while standard letters one ounce or less need a 15-cent stamp," he said.

By ILLINOIS LT. GOV.

Before introducing John Connally at Tuesday night's national Republican convention session, I lunched with Sen. Howard Baker, Sen. John Heinz, Sen. Chuck Percy, Gov. Jim Thompson and Illinois Republican Chairman Don Adams to discuss my campaign strategy in the U.S. Senate race.

Rose Vieth of Carbondale, who served on the Platform Committee, said that her meeting with Sen. Jesse Helms was both informative and interesting. They agreed on the need for a strong and sensible conservative platform.

Dr. Ed Ragsdale, Madison County GOP chairman, huddled at Detroit with Gov. Thompson and Gov. Al Quie of Minnesota to discuss plans for party unity in the upcoming election.

Wayne Matter of Viola and Lefroy Uffes of Carthage drove into the city and shopped for additions to their famous political button collection. Leonard Arons chose to enhance his huge button collection by trading with delegates from all over the country.

Joe Kelly assured the Illinois delegation that Gov. Ronald Reagan will play very well, indeed, in Peoria in November.

Julie and Bill Cellini of Springfield, lined with Illinois House Minority Leader George Ryan to discuss the best ways to keep the Illinois delegation united during and after the convention.

State Reps. Harry Leinenweber (Joliet), Tom Ewing (Pontiac), Betty Hoxsey (Ottawa), Tim Simms (Rockford) and Jack Davis (Beecher) were observed discussing back-home Statehouse politics.

Best dancer in the crowd was Congressman Tom Railsback of Moline, tripping the light fantastic with Mrs. Judy Belknap of Springfield.

Roscoe Cunningham of Lawrenceville feels that delegates should have a larger role in the vice-presidential selection. Delegate Jim Dunham introduced a resolution to poll the Illinois delegation on its vice-presidential choice, but it was tabled.

Illinois GOP Chairman Adams remained in Detroit after the convention to meet privately with Ronald Reagan.

Peoria Congressman Bob Michel wowed the whole crowd with his rendition of the "Star Spangled Banner" at the opening session of the convention.

Trends show need to beef up state highway funding

In his latest financial review, distributed Friday in the Quad-City area, State Comptroller Roland W. Burris included a timely reminder that the road fund is running into trouble at the same time that many streets and highways are deteriorating.

While any major tax increase would be mighty unpopular in this recessionary time, he is right in suggesting strong consideration of a new state road funding plan. Perhaps this might involve changing the gasoline tax formula from a specific amount per gallon to a percentage, enabling receipts to keep pace with inflation.

Burris had noted in May that "if motor fuel tax revenues continue to decline (associated with decreasing fuel use), and if federal funds are cut back to achieve balanced budgets this year and in the years ahead (as Washington officials have proposed), Illinois must consider new ways to maintain our highways."

His new report, combined with a quarterly look at the state road fund, shows it contained $27 million at the end of the fiscal year June 30, the lowest balance since the 1971-72 fiscal year and $28 million less than a year ago.

There was record spending on Illinois roads last year (up $59 million to $655 million) but it resulted largely from increased federal funds. Overall road fund revenue rose $45 million in 1979-80 to $1,134,000,000 (other agencies than the Transportation Department also spend from the road fund) but 86 percent of the increase stemmed from federal aid. New legislation, effective in the last half of 1979-80, shifted $46 million in sales tax revenue to the road fund. But total road fund receipts from state sources during the past year proved to be $23 million less than had been estimated in March 1980 by the budget bureau.

Revenue from state sources, meanwhile, was climbing from $408 million to $376 million. Burris comments, "This is a strong indication that a greatly expanded road program in Illinois is contingent on the federal highway aid program."

"Debt service has risen to $76 million a year from none nine years ago, and operating costs have increased from $24 million to $399 million a year."

"The rise in revenue and expenditures over the past decade is not indicative of what the future holds, but it is apparent there is great dependence on the continued receipt of federal assistance."

If Uncle Sam backs off from the existing pattern of support for highway building and maintenance, it seems clear that the state will need to be ready to shoulder more of the burden, or accept a rapid proliferation of pavement potholes.

State should allow GOP court candidate on ballot

The State Election Board's reluctance to place a Republican on the Appellate Court ballot in this district Nov. 4 provides a warning to that body not to take the primary election process as lightly as it has in the past.

But now that the warning has been issued and acknowledged, it would still seem fitting for the state board to find some way to justify a ballot listing for Thomas Welch, 41, Collinsville, an attorney and former magistrate.

With all due respect to Robert Mays, the surprise non-judge victor in a four-way Democratic race in March, there is massive public sentiment within the Mount Vernon appellate district favoring an opportunity to vote for all two prospects rather than a lone candidate.

There also is strong feeling within the Republican party that Welch's legal experience would make him to be an outstanding judge, and that the party was negligent in not waging an active campaign for the appellate bench nomination.

It is wrong for either major party to ignore such an important electoral office.

It would still be possible to organize a write-in campaign for the general election of course, and the name of Welch is not hard to spell. But such a campaign would be a tough task in this large appellate geographic area that even some of the primary ballot candidates found difficult to traverse sufficiently to advance their candidacies.

The Bar Association failed to endorse Democrat Mays for the judicial position, a point noted by Madison County Republican Chairman Edward Ragdale in asserting that "the people are entitled to a choice" in November.

Dr. Ragdale indicates that if Republicans fail to change the Election Board's thinking, they will challenge the decision to allow Welch on the ballot. This plan makes sense, and ought to be implemented well before the time when the fall ballots must be printed.

GC Park District to adopt $877,722 budget

The Granite City Park Board of Commissioners will adopt a $877,722 appropriation ordinance to operate local parks and recreation facilities in 1980-81 during a 5:30 meeting tonight in the Wilson Park office, Benton Street and Oregon Avenue.

Tonight's session is a continuation of the board's regular July 23 meeting, which was recessed five days to comply with the mandatory 20-day legislative display period prior to the budget's adoption.

The new appropriation ordinance includes the amounts of $439,484 for total corporate purposes; $379,888 for recreational purposes; $41,000 for the Illinois Municipal Retirement Fund; $14,800, liability insurance; $28,825 for fire insurance.

In other action at last week's board meeting, a representative of the Miracle Equipment Co., presented a talk and showed a series of slides concerning new playground equipment being investigated by the park district.

Plans are underway to enlarge and redesign the children's playground in Wilson Park.

The renovation project may involve using a playground piece built around three different slides, all extending from a main platform and featuring an enclosed "tornado" slide.

Smaller pieces of play equipment will be added in the improvement project, which is expected to cost in excess of $10,000.

As a safety factor, the manufacturer's representative strongly urged the use of pea gravel or wood chips as ground cover in the play area.

The public will be allowed to ask questions at the meeting on plans for two tracts for business and multiple-family dwellings purposes.

On lots 16 through 23 of Foreman Heights Second Addition, Lewis is requesting rezoning from R-3 single-family residential zoning to R-5 multiple-family dwelling zoning, and on lots 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100, 101, 102, 103, 104, 105, 106, 107, 108, 109, 110, 111, 112, 113, 114, 115, 116, 117, 118, 119, 120, 121, 122, 123, 124, 125, 126, 127, 128, 129, 130, 131, 132, 133, 134, 135, 136, 137, 138, 139, 140, 141, 142, 143, 144, 145, 146, 147, 148, 149, 150, 151, 152, 153, 154, 155, 156, 157, 158, 159, 160, 161, 162, 163, 164, 165, 166, 167, 168, 169, 170, 171, 172, 173, 174, 175, 176, 177, 178, 179, 180, 181, 182, 183, 184, 185, 186, 187, 188, 189, 190, 191, 192, 193, 194, 195, 196, 197, 198, 199, 200, 201, 202, 203, 204, 205, 206, 207, 208, 209, 210, 211, 212, 213, 214, 215, 216, 217, 218, 219, 220, 221, 222, 223, 224, 225, 226, 227, 228, 229, 230, 231, 232, 233, 234, 235, 236, 237, 238, 239, 240, 241, 242, 243, 244, 245, 246, 247, 248, 249, 250, 251, 252, 253, 254, 255, 256, 257, 258, 259, 260, 261, 262, 263, 264, 265, 266, 267, 268, 269, 270, 271, 272, 273, 274, 275, 276, 277, 278, 279, 280, 281, 282, 283, 284, 285, 286, 287, 288, 289, 290, 291, 292, 293, 294, 295, 296, 297, 298, 299, 300, 301, 302, 303, 304, 305, 306, 307, 308, 309, 310, 311, 312, 313, 314, 315, 316, 317, 318, 319, 320, 321, 322, 323, 324, 325, 326, 327, 328, 329, 330, 331, 332, 333, 334, 335, 336, 337, 338, 339, 340, 341, 342, 343, 344, 345, 346, 347, 348, 349, 350, 351, 352, 353, 354, 355, 356, 357, 358, 359, 360, 361, 362, 363, 364, 365, 366, 367, 368, 369, 370, 371, 372, 373, 374, 375, 376, 377, 378, 379, 380, 381, 382, 383, 384, 385, 386, 387, 388, 389, 390, 391, 392, 393, 394, 395, 396, 397, 398, 399, 400, 401, 402, 403, 404, 405, 406, 407, 408, 409, 410, 411, 412, 413, 414, 415, 416, 417, 418, 419, 420, 421, 422, 423, 424, 425, 426, 427, 428, 429, 430, 431, 432, 433, 434, 435, 436, 437, 438, 439, 440, 441, 442, 443, 444, 445, 446, 447, 448, 449, 450, 451, 452, 453, 454, 455, 456, 457, 458, 459, 460, 461, 462, 463, 464, 465, 466, 467, 468, 469, 470, 471, 472, 473, 474, 475, 476, 477, 478, 479, 480, 481, 482, 483, 484, 485, 486, 487, 488, 489, 490, 491, 492, 493, 494, 495, 496, 497, 498, 499, 500, 501, 502, 503, 504, 505, 506, 507, 508, 509, 510, 511, 512, 513, 514, 515, 516, 517, 518, 519, 520, 521, 522, 523, 524, 525, 526, 527, 528, 529, 530, 531, 532, 533, 534, 535, 536, 537, 538, 539, 540, 541, 542, 543, 544, 545, 546, 547, 548, 549, 550, 551, 552, 553, 554, 555, 556, 557, 558, 559, 560, 561, 562, 563, 564, 565, 566, 567, 568, 569, 570, 571, 572, 573, 574, 575, 576, 577, 578, 579, 580, 581, 582, 583, 584, 585, 586, 587, 588, 589, 590, 591, 592, 593, 594, 595, 596, 597, 598, 599, 600, 601, 602, 603, 604, 605, 606, 607, 608, 609, 610, 611, 612, 613, 614, 615, 616, 617, 618, 619, 620, 621, 622, 623, 624, 625, 626, 627, 628, 629, 630, 631, 632, 633, 634, 635, 636, 637, 638, 639, 640, 641, 642, 643, 644, 645, 646, 647, 648, 649, 650, 651, 652, 653, 654, 655, 656, 657, 658, 659, 660, 661, 662, 663, 664, 665, 666, 667, 668, 669, 670, 671, 672, 673, 674, 675, 676, 677, 678, 679, 680, 681, 682, 683, 684, 685, 686, 687, 688, 689, 690, 691, 692, 693, 694, 695, 696, 697, 698, 699, 700, 701, 702, 703, 704, 705, 706, 707, 708, 709, 710, 711, 712, 713, 714, 715, 716, 717, 718, 719, 720, 721, 722, 723, 724, 725, 726, 727, 728, 729, 730, 731, 732, 733, 734, 735, 736, 737, 738, 739, 740, 741, 742, 743, 744, 745, 746, 747, 748, 749, 750, 751, 752, 753, 754, 755, 756, 757, 758, 759, 760, 761, 762, 763, 764, 765, 766, 767, 768, 769, 770, 771, 772, 773, 774, 775, 776, 777, 778, 779, 780, 781, 782, 783, 784, 785, 786, 787, 788, 789, 790, 791, 792, 793, 794, 795, 796, 797, 798, 799, 800, 801, 802, 803, 804, 805, 806, 807, 808, 809, 810, 811, 812, 813, 814, 815, 816, 817, 818, 819, 820, 821, 822, 823, 824, 825, 826, 827, 828, 829, 830, 831, 832, 833, 834, 835, 836, 837, 838, 839, 840, 841, 842, 843, 844, 845, 846, 847, 848, 849, 850, 851, 852, 853, 854, 855, 856, 857, 858, 859, 860, 861, 862, 863, 864, 865, 866, 867, 868, 869, 870, 871, 872, 873, 874, 875, 876, 877, 878, 879, 880, 881, 882, 883, 884, 885, 886, 887, 888, 889, 890, 891, 892, 893, 894, 895, 896, 897, 898, 899, 900, 901, 902, 903, 904, 905, 906, 907, 908, 909, 910, 911, 912, 913, 914, 915, 916, 917, 918, 919, 920, 921, 922, 923, 924, 925, 926, 927, 928, 929, 930, 931, 932, 933, 934, 935, 936, 937, 938, 939, 940, 941, 942, 943, 944, 945, 946, 947, 948, 949, 950, 951, 952, 953, 954, 955, 956, 957, 958, 959, 960, 961, 962, 963, 964, 965, 966, 967, 968, 969, 970, 971, 972, 973, 974, 975, 976, 977, 978, 979, 980, 981, 982, 983, 984, 985, 986, 987, 988, 989, 990, 991, 992, 993, 994, 995, 996, 997, 998, 999, 1000.

Ask rezoning for multiple housing

A request to rezone property at Maryville and Morrison Roads north of Granite City for business and multiple-family dwelling use is among the requests which will be considered tomorrow by the Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals during three on-site public hearings.

At 10:10 a.m. Tuesday, the board will meet at the southeast corner of Maryville and Morrison roads where Russell Lewis is requesting rezoning developing the lot. The zoning board will recommend the county courthouse after the public hearings to determine what recommendation it will make to the Madison County Board.

The County Board then will use its recommendation in determining at its August meeting whether the requests should be granted or denied.

The hearings will follow two other on-site public hearings Tuesday morning. The first hearing will be at 9:05 a.m. tomorrow at the Ho-Hum Cafe, 9201

Legislators to review levee district cash bind

State legislators representing this area will be invited to an Aug. 15 meeting of the Metro-East Sanitary District at which the district plans to ask them to introduce legislation to increase the district's tax rate.

During a meeting here Thursday, the commissioners agreed that the district will not be able to continue to offer adequate protection from flooding in this area, unless the taxes are increased, which would require approval of the legislature. Statistics to show declining income over the last five years from the "fixed" tax rate will be shown to the legislators who attend the Aug. 15 meeting.

In other business Thursday, the board rejected a proposed settlement of a lawsuit filed against SCA Services, for dirt removed from the Cahokia Canal Levee near the Mill East Landfill south of Bend Road. The dirt was put on the landfill as cover, it is alleged.

SCA had agreed to restore the levee, but that proposal was rejected. The latest proposal was that SCA would pay only for actual damages (about $650,000). "If we settle only for actual damages, we are just telling everyone they can steal the dirt from our levees and don't have to pay for it, unless they get caught," Commissioner Walter Shang's Greathouse told a Chamber of Commerce committee last week.

In other business Thursday, the board rejected a

Iran events described

Opposition to the shah of Iran and to Americans who were helping modernize that country was a somewhat natural outgrowth of the traumatic changes that took Rotarians were told last week by the Rev. James Wood.

Oppression and sharp contrasts in living standards accelerated the descent into revolution, the speaker said. Now with the Cahokia Pentecostal Church, he was a missionary in Iran from 1971 until Jan. 15, 1979, the day before the shah departed. He plans to return to Iran in October.

Rev. Wood blamed excesses by the secret police for much of the unrest, saying that the shah's regime was neither all bad nor all good.

There was so much interest in attracting American, French, German, Swedish, Korean, Philippine, Mexican and Afghanisthan technical experts that they were often paid $3,000 to $6,000 a month, while Iranians with similar skills might receive only $500 a month, the club was told; there were 50,000 U. S. citizens living in Iran in June 1978 but now nearly all are gone.

Many reforms were accomplished but Marxists gained an increasing foothold at the same time public sentiment also was swinging toward the views of religious leaders, Rev. Wood said.

Program chairman was James Hudson, President George Moore presided and A.T. Barnes III, recognized as new Rotary member.

Orders for rail freight car parts down, but still substantial Amsted Industries last week announced record sales and income in the third quarter. Sales ended June 30, 1980, totaled $706,521,000, up $65,956,000, or 10 percent, from the same period a year ago.

Earnings amounted to $61,645,000, or $5.71 per share, up from $47,791,000, or $4.43 per share, Amsted is the parent firm of American Steel Foundries, which makes railroad freight car components in Granite City.

Net income was 8.7 percent of net sales compared to 7.5 percent a year ago. The improved margin reflects principally an increased volume of shipments and a more profitable product mix. Goff Smith, chairman, said that in the three months ended June 30, 1980, sales were $237,077,000, up $10,372,000, or 5 percent, from the June quarter last year. Net income was $19,446,000, or $1.82 per share, up from $16,726,000, or $1.55 per share.

Net income in the June quarter amounted to 8.3 percent of net sales compared to 7.4 percent in the same quarter last year. The 1979 quarter was adversely affected by a 12-week work stoppage at the Bessemer, Ala., wheel plant.

Smith noted that sales in the nine months increased in each major product category compared to last year. Railroad product sales of $179,200,000 were up $46,200,000, or 14 percent, reflecting a high level of freight car building and a continuing strong demand for repair components.

General industrial product sales amounted to $170,600,000, an increase of $16,100,000, or 10 percent, over the nine months ended June 30, 1979. Higher sales of mechanical power transmission components, equipment to purify and recycle industrial liquids, and parts handling equipment generated the increase.

Sales of construction and building products were $157,600,000, up $3,700,000, or 2 percent.

A decrease in the sales of pressure pipe for water transmission, attributable to the reduced level of housing starts, was more than offset by increased sales of plastic pipe for gas distribution and pre-coating of metal for commercial, farm and industrial buildings.

Following is a comparison of the pre-tax operating income generated by each of the product categories for the first nine months of fiscal 1980 and 1979.

Air Products earnings rise

Air Products and Chemicals, Inc., reported last week that sales for its third quarter ended June 30 were $356 million, a 16 percent gain over the $307 million reported in the same period last year.

Net income of $27 million, or 85 cents a share, was eight percent higher than the $25 million, or 80 cents a share, earned in the June quarter of 1979.

Foreign exchange and capital gains of interest contributed 10 cents a share to results in the quarter just ended.

The firm is based in Allentown, Pa., and its plant sites include Granite City. Commenting on the earnings, Edward Donley, chairman of Air Products said, "The company began to feel the effects of the current recession during our third fiscal quarter. In addition, we continue to experience margin pressure in our industrial gas business in the U.S."

For the first nine months of fiscal 1980, Air Products sales were $1.05 billion, 19 percent higher than the same period of last year. Net income rose 29 percent to $92 million, or $3.25 a share, versus $71 million or $2.53 a share for the first nine months of 1979.

The pre-tax operating income shown for each category is based on total sales less operating expenses before allocation of general corporate expenses, interest income and the gain on the sale of a German roller chain manufacturing subsidiary in the second quarter of fiscal 1980.

The unallocated items amounted to net expense of $1,700,000 in 1980 and $6,200,000 in 1979. The major item reducing the net expense was increased interest income in 1980.

Pre-tax operating income for the nine months ended June 30, 1980 and 1979:

General industrial products, $20,700,000 and $18,900,000.

Construction and building products, $3,300,000 and $6,800,000.

Railroad products, $94,500,000 and $71,200,000.

Grand total, $118,500,000 and $98,000,000.

The rail products now account for 80 percent of the total, up from 74 percent.

Operating income for the general industrial and railroad segments increased primarily because of higher sales.

During the first nine months of fiscal 1980, Amsted's additions to property were $24,000,000. Planned capital expenditures to total about $50,000,000 for property additions in fiscal 1980.

Chairman Smith said that Amsted's backlog of orders at June 30, 1980, amounted to $391,000,000 compared to $441,000,000 at Sept. 30, 1979, and $459,000,000 a year ago.

Orders for new and repair freight car components, while still the largest portion of the backlog, account for most of the decrease from a year ago and the beginning of the year.

In the past three months, there have been significant cancellations of new freight car orders, reducing the housing backlog of new cars to be built to 69,000 from 128,000 at the beginning of the fiscal year and 124,000 a year ago.

The backlog of orders for general industrial products is down from the beginning of the fiscal year and the level a year ago, reflecting the effects of the current recession.

Unfilled orders for construction and building products are also down from the start of the fiscal year and the level a year earlier.

Most of this decline was in orders for valves, valve operators and control systems for water and sewer generating plants as a result of the lower number of housing starts and reduced new power plant construction.

Smith said, "Income for the last quarter of the year is expected to be below the level of the quarter just ended. The quarter will reflect the impact of the reduced freight car order cancellations as well as extended delivery dates."

"A continuing low level of housing starts, the slumping economy and the effects of normal vacation shutdowns are also factors which will result in a reduced level of earnings in the last quarter."

However, the backlog is still at a good level and should result in earnings for the fourth quarter being only moderately below those of the comparable quarter last year.

"For the full year, sales and earnings will exceed the records set in fiscal 1979." The board of directors of Amsted declared a quarterly dividend of 62 cents per share payable on Sept. 15 to stockholders of record as of the close of business on Aug. 20.

This is the same dividend declared for the previous quarter and is an increase of 12 cents, or 24 percent, over the rate paid one year ago.

JoAnn Hahn at Florida seminar

JoAnn Hahn, wife of Rudy Hahn, owner of Hi-Lite Studio, 1335 Nineteenth St., has returned from Hudson, Fla., where she attended the Veronica Cass National School of Retouching, Inc.

Mrs. Hahn spent two weeks at the school learning the specialized skills of negative and print retouching.

The first week was devoted to the art of dye retouching negatives which enhances the quality of portraits, and learning how to remove blemishes and imperfections using the most modern techniques.

Students were taught how to use special dyes, pencils and flexichrome air-brushing techniques, application of acrylics to backgrounds and other skills during the second week.

Classes are limited to insure the highest standards of quality and a certificate student can apply this knowledge immediately to his or her photographic endeavors, Mrs. Hahn explained.

Veronica Cass, a creative photographer who operates the school, is internationally recognized as one of the most accomplished persons in this aspect of photography, the local woman said.

CERTIFICATE is presented to JoAnn Hahn, right, wife of Rudy Hahn, owner of Hi-Lite Studio, 1335 Nineteenth St., by Veronica Cass, a creative photographer whose school in Hudson, Fla., the local woman attended.

Workshop on professional advancement

A workshop is planned for men and women who would like to return to college for professional advancement and those who would like to enroll in classes for the first time.

The one-day workshop will be held Monday, Aug. 4, from 9 a.m. until 2 p.m. in the Mississippi Room of the SIUE University Center and is co-sponsored as a public service by the Counseling and Testing Center and the Gerontology Program.

There is no charge, and the public is invited to attend. Participants may "brown bag" their lunches or utilize the university cafeteria or dining room facilities.

Parking is free in all red-decal student parking lots. The workshop will benefit the person who would like to advance professionally but who must continue to work while doing so; and the woman who would like to supplement the family income, but who has small children still at home.

People who would like to know how they can transfer their present skills to another career through additional education are being encouraged to attend the workshop.

Career goals, gaining college credit for life experience, entering college as a non-high school graduate and available counseling, tutoring and placement services will also be discussed.

Registration and additional information are available by contacting Max Hanel, Office of Counseling and Testing, at 692-2100.

Still the BEST BARGAIN around town!

Effective July 1, Bi-State's bus fares are up—the first increase in seven years—but they are still the best bargain around town! Consider this simple arithmetic on the economy of riding the bus vs. driving your car to work.

30.95¢ Automobile operating cost per mile x 20 Miles (average round trip)
$6.19
= 1.75¢ Parking (downtown average)
$7.94 Auto cost per day
x 240 Working days annually
$1,905.60 Yearly cost
= 240.00 Bus cost (new fare) at $1.00 per day
$1,665.60 Savings annually!
If you park free, you still save $1,245.60!

You see...we're still going your way and actually saving you more than ever before, because of the soaring price of gasoline and just about everything else. If you are now riding the bus, keep it up—you're in on a good thing. If you've just been thinking about riding the bus, don't let the new fares scare you off—it's still the best bargain around town!

For the proposed Amendment to Section 8 of Article IX of the Constitution to authorize the General Assembly to reduce the redemption period following certain tax sales which occur after 50 property taxes have been paid for 5 years.

YES

NO

EXPLANATION OF PROPOSED AMENDMENT

The proposed Amendment deals only with the problem of long-term tax delinquency on commercial property, vacant non-farm, and large multi-unit residential properties. It has no effect on single-family homes, farms, or apartment buildings containing 6 or less units.

The present Illinois law allows a 5 or more years of non-payment of property taxes to be redeemed by the county treasurer conducts an auction, or a receiver sale, at which the high bidder receives a tax sale certificate.

Following the receiver sale, the Constitution now guarantees the owner 2 years to redeem or buy back the property. The high bidder provides by law title to the property until after this 2-year redemption period has elapsed.

The proposed amendment would allow the General Assembly to reduce the 2-year redemption period to not less than 90 days following the receiver sale.

Subsidiaries offset steel losses

Pittsburgh—National Steel Corp. said Friday that strong performance by its diversified aluminum and steel subsidiaries offset losses in the steel division.

The diversified subsidiaries, which accounted for 25 percent of the company's earnings, had a combined loss of $1.5 million in the second quarter.

For the second quarter of 1980, National earned $3.3 million, or 18 cents per share, down 88 percent from $45.2 million, or $2.34 per share, in the second quarter of 1979 when high levels of operations and demand prevailed.

Earnings in the first half of 1980 increased 67 percent to $10.4 million, or $3.81 per share, compared with $65.9 million, or $3.42 per share in the first half of 1979. The majority of these earnings came from a non-recurring gain on the sale of a property in the first quarter of 1980.

Raw steel production in the second quarter of this year was down 38 percent to 1.8 million tons, the lowest amount since 1962. Nearly 3 million tons were produced in the second quarter last year.

Steel shipments declined 37 percent to 1.4 million tons in the second quarter, which also is near the low level of 1962, vs. 2.2 million tons shipped in the second quarter of 1979.

"Earnings for our aluminum subsidiary were the highest for any second quarter on record," said Edward M. Love, National's president and chief executive officer.

"These gratifying results, coupled with good earnings from our newly acquired financial subsidiary, United Financial Corp. of California, more than offset the losses in the steel division," Love said.

"The severe decline in steel demand, which reached unprecedented lows in the month of April and improved only slightly in May and June, had a severe impact on steel operations," Love said.

At the same time, imported steel, which accounted for 21 percent of supply in May, continued to pour into America.

"We deeply regret the painful effects of these layoffs on our employees, their families and the communities in which they live. I wish it were possible to say the worst is over, but unfortunately the outlook for demand in the third quarter is not bright. Further customer inventory reductions are possible before an upturn begins, perhaps in the fourth quarter."

"Demand from virtually all markets except those related to energy production and supply, plus large and shipping, is off primarily due to a sharply lower consumer spending. Till mill shipments also have begun to show some softening as the recession continues. In addition to the impact of sharply lower volume, prices of flat-rolled products, which comprise virtually all of National's product line, have been adversely affected by price-cutting discounting by competitors."

"Aggressive cost-reduction programs at all of National's plants have, in part, offset the adverse effects of virtually unrelenting competitive pressures on prices currently being experienced," Love said.

Capital spending has been reduced from a scheduled $340 million to $250 million this year. The major portion of this spending is for maintenance of existing equipment, environmental controls, installation of new technology.

"The requirements for high levels of environmental spending at a time when revenues are inadequate points to the urgent need for a realistic revision of the environmental timetable. The forced spending for counterproductive environmental controls is draining scarce capital from new technology that could improve the environment, reduce energy consumption, reduce costs, improve steel international competitiveness and save future jobs."

The reduction of the capital budget has caused a delay in the KMS furnace modification project at Great Lakes Steel. New continuous casters have been held at the studying stage. The new KMS furnace and continuous caster project at Granite City Steel is proceeding and will be completed this year, Love said.

As now required of all companies under a new ruling by the Financial Accounting Standards Board, capitalized interest expense (interest on capital projects) amounted to $8.6 million before tax or 18 cents per share for the second quarter, and $10 million before tax or 32 cents per share for the six months ended June 30, 1980. This includes capitalized interest expense for United Financial Corp. and other associated companies as well as investment tax credits and percentage depletion allowances.

Sales and other income for the second quarter, 1980, totaled $881.2 million, a 23 percent decline from $1.1 billion reported in the second quarter of 1979. In the first half of 1980, sales and other income totaled $2.2 billion, or 8 percent below the $2.4 billion in the first half of 1979.

Army/Navy Surplus Store Has Changed!

Remember the local Army/Navy surplus store—all those nifty olive drab jackets with pockets, and the fatigues that looked great at rock concerts? You could do almost anything in them and they always looked terrific. Of course, terrific in the '60s meant wrinkled, baggy and worn.

Ah—but what a difference the years make. Now you're in college or graduate school and have put aside battle jackets and combat boots for sedate suits and plain pumps. Even weekends are more fashionable with the "new" preppy look in sweaters, button-down collars, and well-cut jeans. (No one needs to know that sweater has been hanging around the closet since you were 14. It's fashion.)

Just because you've changed your image doesn't mean you can't find suitable fashions for the '80s at your old Army/Navy. In fact, you'll find some great buys that are as up-to-date and fashionable as any designer collection.

The Fiber Information Center reports that a recent visit turned up a colorful array of crew-neck sweaters in polyester and wool blends. They can be tossed in the washing machine and the dryer and still look like new. Wear them over pants or skirts

... at under $15 each, they're very affordable... and certainly much less than the designer variety. The sweaters come in small, medium and large and fit both men and women.

Today's shirts made of polyester and cotton blends are also in plentiful supply at your local Army/Navy emporium. Plaids, stripes, checks and solids go with all those sweaters, or work well by themselves, and can be found for as little as $12. Women can check out the boy's aisle for a perfect fit.

Other finds include jeans or overalls in a variety of fall shades, and accessories galore.

Not only are all these discounted and fashionable finds priced well below those in chic environments, but being made of man-made fiber blends, they're durable and require just machine washing. That's a load off the pocketbook, too!

So check it out and "truck" on down to a local Army/Navy surplus store.

Preppy Look Takes Honors On Campus

The Preppy Look is back and collegiates have got it! Plaid will be the uniform of the day on campuses everywhere this fall, predict fashion watchers.

Glen plaids, tartans and other plaid variations will brighten up the fall scene in kilts, knickers, walking shorts, pants and Bermudas. Plaids also show up in Loden-type jackets, blazers, blousons, and bulky cardigans this season.

To complete the Preppy picture, Argyle knee-highs, and lace-collared sweaters are among the classic touches.

Tartan tones range from greens, navies, wines, grays and camels to black-and-whites, red-and-blacks, or aqua-and-camels.

This season's favorite skirt is the kilt, with other popular looks such as box-pleats and dirndls also making the back-to-school scene.

Sweaters are bulkier than ever with multi-colored and textured hand-knits taking the spotlight. Sweater girls will also be sporting Argyle patterns, bouclés, chenilles, Sherpa linings that reverse, fur or feather trims, ribbings, stripings, unique pocketings, lace collars, prints, checks, and ruffles. This season's sweaters can be wild and woolly, angora or mohair-soft, or smoothly acrylic... take your pick!

Legs will be making news on campus once again, thanks to shortened skirts and a new crop of shorts. The latest Bermudas, culottes, knickers, knee-length pants and walking shorts will have coeds getting their share of attention from BMOCs, no doubt.

Pants are pleated or trim, cuffed or plain, pulled-on or belted, but very much a part of the back-to-school picture.
